

THE BOURBON NEWS.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

VOL. II.

PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY: TUESDAY, APRIL 24, 1883.

NO. 121.

The musical voice of the frog betokens that Spring is really here.

Pink-eye has made its appearance here among the hares again.

Jim Brown caught 17 pounds of bass down at Kiser's the other day.

R. ALBERT, the Maysville jeweler, succeeded by shooting himself Sunday.

S. SALOMON, formerly of this city, is trying to establish electric light in Maysville.

TOM TURNER, a liverman, formerly of Flemingsburg, died at Huntington, last week.

This republication of Mason county are ordered to make fools of themselves on May 14th.

For everything new and nice in Spring millinery and notions, call on Miss B. BREEDER, on Broadway.

This Court of Appeals have continued the case of Bedford vs. McGibben, and set the Craft case for a hearing on May 15th.

No rebate on revenue license after the first day of May. Call on Deputy Collector Jim Brown, and down with the stamps.

AMM. DORSEY now has T. O. Bashford's saloon under his special management, and invites his old friends to call and see him.

Now is the time to select your wall paper, carpets, chamber suits, &c. Call at John T. Hinton's and examine his new stock.

OVEREY & Co. are buying tobacco in Cincinnati and shipping it here to dry. They claim that they can buy it cheaper there than here.

James Elliott, Louisville, says he was sick for six months with dyspepsia, and nothing proved of any avail except Brown's Iron Bitters.

The Agricultural Society offer about $300 in premiums for Jersey cattle at their next fair. Better buy a good one at Alex. McClintock's sale May 10th.

Dox's fall to read our big circus advertisement on the editorial page. This show will be one of the grand events of the season, and will, of course, be largely attended.

"HAZEL KIRKE" was a first-class performance, but it would have cost but about three cents more for the gas to have burned full while the audience was getting out of the hall.

Is the Common Pleas Court at Lexington last week, a suit for $8,000 against the Southern railroad was compromised by the road paying Mr. Rennie $500 for running into his rockaway.

HENRY HALL had a fractions young horse unblinded from the plow the other day in order to change bridles, when the horse made a lunge, broke down a plank fence and ran like a streak of lightning to town, a distance of two miles.

J. J. Williams, of Cynthiana, who represents the old and reliable New York Life Insurance Co., is in town and will remain several days. Mr. Williams in behalf of this prompt company, recently paid out $4,000 on the life of W. H. Severt, of this city, and $2,000 on the life of John Purcell, of Millersburg. Men desiring policies in a safe company, will do well to patronize Mr. Williams.

In court yesterday, Geo. Washington, col'd, was sent up for one year, for the Bourbon House sale. The Robbison case was called, and the defense, though ready for trial, on affidavits of Jas. L. Brown and Pat Hunt, alleging that a fair trial could not be had, swore Judge Buckner off the bench. The bar will elect a special Judge this morning and proceed with the trial.

USCLE BRILEY ALLISON, who has been slightly deranged for two years or more, ran the civil engineer and stationer of the F. G. & P. railroad off of his farm last week, and while chasing them, said that they never intended to build their road, but were just fooling the people; and that they just had their instruments along with them for the purpose of finding the shortest way to the Frankfort penitentiary, where they properly belonged.

MAJOR HUBER, who died at Lexington Friday, was aged 77 years and 9 months. He had been endeavoring 54 years, and was immersed into the Christian Church here by Elder J. P. Johnson, in 1836. He is the last but one of a family of twelve children: his sister, Mrs. Susan Porter, now in Missouri, formerly of this city, surviving him. He leaves seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. His illness was Bright's disease of the kidneys.

1882. G. D. 1883.

Mirthful mingles among the flowing bowl, with feasts of reason and food of soul held high, but not wicked carnival, while the dull cares of life, temperance, softening influences of the gentler sex and other handcap fixtures were stowed away for a season, on occasion of the celebration of Garrett Davis' twenty-first birthday, at the Bourbon House, Friday evening last. As joy unfettered rules the evening at female hen conventions, so in proportion were the yomanry of the city unfettered on this occasion. Toast after toast was responded to, until he who refused to respond was almost deemed unseemly and ungrateful. Unusual brevity of space forbids the extended notice of this grand occasion, but suffice it to say that it was an occasion long to be remembered by all of the participants at the truly royal little banquet. In a very befitting manner the host of the occasion, the landlord and lady of the house, the young men of Kentucky and the BOURBON NEWS were complimented with toasts, while random spats and stray shots were fired in all directions. The menu, drapery and decorations were the special handiwork of the fair landlady, who has never yet reflected aught but great praise on such occasions.

RANDOM SHOTS.

Ben Paton—Here's to his—fill 'er up again.

Albert Adair—Was never thus since childhood's hour.

Frank Clay—Here's to Ben Paton, the Mayor of Cynthiana.

Dr. John Lytle—Here's to the sue—sue—success of the host.

Charlie Offutt—Here's to our children that are and are to be.

Frank Carr—Here's to the cook—may she "sit down" by forty voices.

Doctor Howard—Here's to Davis & Davis' cutter, and (a voice, "cutter-shout.")

E. A. Hundley—Here's to our children left at the—(the balance lost in the storm.)

Capt. Doehrer—I want it distinctly understood that this is no Democratic convention.

John Smith—Here's to a whole congress of American eagles—may they spread, and spread, and spread, and spread—oh, jehay, boys, let me finish.

Maj. Thos. Owens—You drink to the gooseberry bush and I'll drink to the briar. You drink to your true love, and—(the balance was lost in the storm of voices.)

Don't Stab our Friend.

J. BOYLE SMITH, an illigal wind-blower in the Cincinnati News, from Lexington, in berating Gen. Buckner for having worn the gray with himself, winds up that same old stereotyped Republican tirade with this honest confession:

"Gen. Buckner is a clean man, a pure man, and a gentleman."

Yet he must be abused because he was a Confederate soldier. Nobly abused Judge Owens because he was a Union soldier! In fact, the ex-Confederates rather admire him because he was an exemplary one. The ex-Confederates are endeared to their old Commander because he was a faithful one.

Wanderer, and one who did not desert them at Donelson as others higher in rank did. The charge too, of "Falcon," that "his only military exploit during the war was the surrender of Donelson," is false! He won a distinction as a commander at Munfordsville, where he charged a fort and captured 2,000 prisoners; also, at Perryville, Chickamauga and in all important battles in which the army of Georgia was engaged, he merited great praise from his commander.

The News is for Knott, too, as is presumably the case with "Falcon," but we cannot stand to see our dear old commander stabbed in the back by an ex-Confederate or anybody else. In point of honor, we are for Knott first choice, and Buckner a glorious second!

ONE of the four new palace drawing-rooms here ordered from the Pullman Company has been finished at a cost of $10,000, and was christened Saturday by the magnates of the K. C. and other roads, by a little trip out from Covington to Kenton Station. The car has been named the "Henrico," after Henrico county, Va., of which Richmond is the county seat. The car is sixty-seven feet long, and is finished with mahogany and white maple on inside. The three others will soon be finished in the same luxurious style and will be run from Covington eastward over the C. & O.

HAD Silvers been tried, convicted and sentenced last week, he would probably be walking the streets to-day with the Governor's pardon in his pocket. But as he will not be tried until October—probably not this year, he cannot hope for a Blackburn pardon, for he will go out of office in September. How short-sighted his hirelings were!

SCINTILLATIONS.

—Irwin Taylor is in from Kansas for a few days.

—Will Hughes and wife, of Carthage, Ill., are the guests of W. A. Hill.

—John Murray has come to Cincinnati, to work in Bruce & Co's carriage works.

A. E. Hundley, of Danville, was in attendance on Garrett Davis' Little Evening.

—John Fleming, formerly of Fleming county, has been elected Mayor of Lenoire, Colorado.

—Miss Anna Clark, of Flat Rock, has gone to a health resort near Cleveland, Ohio, to regain her strength.

—E. Carthage, brother-in-law of L. Frank, left here yesterday for Switzerland to regain his lost health.

—Buckner's Democracy may be Simon Bolivar pure, but Knott any more than another candidate's we might name.

—The opening of W. H. Ingle & Co., was largely attended last week. They made a gorgeous display of fancy dress goods.

—Misses Cora Long and Lula Sharp, two of the B. F. C's loveliest boarders, and three others, united with the Baptist church Sunday evening.

—President Arthur does not desire to conceal his illness under high sounding names. He admits that it was simply bilious stomach-ache.

—Only three men out of forty attending the Garrett Davis banquet did not touch the sparkling flowing bowl—"Sonny" Thomas, Frank Ethian and—well, you can guess the other.

—Mrs. T. F. Erringer, widow of the late Theodore Erringer, left this morning with her two bright sons, to make their home in Chicago. The many friends of the young gentleman here sincerely regret their removal from our midst.

MILLERSBURG.

Mrs. Dr. Butler, of Chicago, is the guest of Mrs. John Neabitt.

Jimmie Batterton spent Saturday and Sunday at his grand-father's.

A little niece of Mrs. Tennie Day has the scarlet fever at W. P. Hunt's.

Prof. Brown and sister, of Cynthiana, spent Saturday and Sunday with relations here.

When Mrs. Katie Davis first married, she was fourteen, and her husband 60 years of age—the last time 45 and her husband 74.

The alumnae of the M. F. C. are requested to meet at the Female College, Thursday evening 7 o'clock P. M. Let all attend as there is business of importance on hands.

Ed. J. T. Sharrard will lecture at the Christian church on Thursday night on the subject of Colorado, New Mexico, and the West. He will have things to say interesting to the young, better for the old he will have Indian, bear and wild cat stories, hairbreadth escapes and the like. Admission free.

The convention of the Y. M. C. A. has been quite successful, and has awakened much interest among the good people of the town. It was especially fortunate that Pres. Loos, of Ky. University was with them. From his wide experience he was able to speak stirring words.

The convention held its session Sunday night with addresses by Revs. Moore, Cooper, Gould, Savage and others.

The Trader, Turfman, Farmer and Sportsman.

W. F. Simms sold the remainder of his Buckner farm to W. T. Buckner.

Wool—I am buying all grades of wool. Call and see me. (20-4) T. L. BERRY.

Mr. Bowman, of Staunton, Va., bought fourteen Short-horns from Capt. W. E. Simms.

McFarty & Swiney have in training at the Ogden place, Lizzie S., Ballard, Centerville, Eliza, Evangeline, Prince Bismarck, Valvin, bay colt by Virgil, and a chestnut colt by Wanderer. Henry Mack, col'd, is their trainer, and has his horses looking well, and they are short of work on account of bad weather.

There were 1,810 hogheads and 23 boxes of tobacco offered in the Cincinnati market last week. The rejections were larger than usual. Fine grades were in good demand, while lower grades were slack, and had a cent lower than last week. The old crop is about all marketed, hence prime new is always in demand at good figures. Quotations range from $1 to $2 for trash and lugs, to $27.50 and $29 for fine leaf fillers.

J. A. Gillis, Louisville, says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters for dyspepsia and general debility; it is the best thing I have ever taken."

Know

That Brown's Iron Bitters will cure the worst case of dyspepsia.

Will insure a hearty appetite and increased digestion.

Cures general debility, and gives a new lease of life.

Dispels nervous depression and low spirits.

Restores an exhausted nursing mother full strength and gives abundant sustenance for her child.

Strengthens the muscles and nerves, enriches the blood.

Overcomes weakness, wakefulness, and lack of energy.

Keeps off all chills, fevers, and other malarial poison.

Will infuse with new life the weakest invalid.

37 Walker St., Baltimore, Dec. 1878.

For six years I have been a great sufferer from Blood Disease, dyspepsia, and Constipation, and I have tried all kinds of medicine, but nothing has done me any good, excepting on my stomach, in fact, I had almost become a invalid. Finally, when I had almost lost all hope, I was advised to try Brown's Iron Bitters. I have taken it for six months, and I am now taking the third bottle, and I feel as well as I did in the first year. I do not feel as if I am any more a Do at the present time. Mrs. E. G. Cooper.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS will have a better tonic effect upon any one who needs "bracing up," than any medicine made.

ANNOUNCEMENT.
 JUDGE T. F. HARGIS,
 CANDIDATE FOR
 Judge of Court of Appeals.
DEMOCRATIC TICKET.
 FOR REPRESENTATIVE,
 CHARLES S. OFFUTT.

Two small boys of Pennsylvania fired with an ambition to be Sullivans and Slades, hid them to the woods Tuesday, stripped to the waist and went in for a regular prize fight. Four rounds were fought, when one youngster had an arm broken and the fight was declared off. The small boy of today has but one ambition—the prize ring.

A reformed gambler now lecturing in New York, says the owner of every game is dead shot for six per cent and upwards in his favor, and that there's not a square game in that city. He claims that forty millions of dollars are annually taken in over the counters of those dens.

Is a prize fight at Philadelphia recently one of the participants had his jaw broken. It would be a terrible calamity to Slade and a great many other pugilists if they should meet with a similar mishap, as they do all their fighting with their jaw bones exclusively.

PETER COOPER'S donation to charities during his life, amounts to over $5,000,000.

The Biggest Show Yet.

The only show coming to Paris this season that owns its own cars, is S. H. Barrett & Co's New United Monster Railroad Shows. The only show advertised to visit Paris that has a name and character to sustain, and which hopes to visit you on some future occasion; knowing that it will give satisfaction and exhibit all it advertises, making friends who will welcome its return. The excellence of this exhibition is decided by the press of other cities to be the best that ever traveled. The following is copied from a late exchange:

The Great Show.
 Nearly everybody for miles around Buffalo came into the city yesterday to see S. H. Barrett & Co's great show. For weeks this circus has been advertising its great attractions, and yesterday's exhibition disclosed the fact that their advertisements were but the truth. Their street parade, which started out at 10 o'clock a.m., was the largest that was ever seen in Buffalo, and took fifty minutes to pass a given point. Under the canvas there was no disappointment. The menagerie was excellent, both in number and variety of animals exhibited, and it is certain that a better collection has never been seen with any circus. The circus proper was above the average, the lariat work, the acrobatic feats, the dog show, the trained horses, the Malay gymnast's antics, the tight-rope walking and velocipede riding, the trap-act performances, and all, were as good as ever exhibited here. The circus tent is about double the ordinary size, having several center-poles, and the seats will accommodate 5,000 people. While the performance was good, that at night was still better, and was witnessed by as large a crowd as was ever seen under a circus tent. One commendable feature of Barrett's show is its decency. The men are quiet, orderly and well-behaved, and there is a marked absence of rowdiness that usually characterizes shows. Barrett's circus is a good one—all who saw it say so. In fact, everything that is good with a circus was found with Barrett & Co's yesterday. —[Buffalo Courier.]

A $20.00 Bible Reward.

The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards in their Monthly for May, among which is the following:
 We will give $20 in gold to the person telling us which is the shortest chapter in the New Testament Scriptures (not the New Revision) by May 10th, 1883. Should two or more correct answers be received, the reward will be divided. The money will be forwarded to the winner May 15th, 1883. Persons trying for the reward must send 20 cents in silver (no postage stamps taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the June Monthly, in which the name and address of the winner and the correct answer will be published, and in which several more valuable rewards will be offered. REMEMBER, IT IS FREE TO ALL.

ATTENTION, HORSEMEN!

We call the attention of the farmers and owners of horse stock, that based at my place, horses for beauty and symmetry as well as for trotting purposes. If a careful inspection is made to the sire and offspring of any horse, I would then most respectfully call attention to Caliban and his offspring—some ten or twelve of which can be seen at my stable. Caliban will be permitted to serve a limited number of mares the coming season, offered by first-class men, (no others need apply), at $25 to insure. Caliban has a record of 2:34, and in the opinion of such horsemen as Dr. L. Hart he could have trotted as well or better than 2:30 on the day which he has record. Two of Caliban's yearling colts showed better than a four minute gait on my indifferent track last Spring.
 I will call the attention to the fact that Mambrino Chief, with the Pilot and Clay cross, has produced some of our most noted horses. I breed for speed as well as sixteen-hands high horses, high style and rangy.
 Caliban is the sire of Cyclone and Ranger, both with records better than 2:27.

 Cane Ridge, Ky.

STANDARD BEARER.

This celebrated horse will make the season of '83, at my stable, three miles from Millersburg and six from Paris, on the Jackstown pike, at Ten Dollars The Season, or Fifteen Dollars to insure a living colt.
 STANDARD BEARER is a bay, foaled 1867; fifteen hands and three inches high; by Volunteer; dam, by Roe's Abdallah Chief; Volunteer, by Rydyk's Hambletonian.
 Like all the sons of Volunteer, Standard Bearer is proving himself a fine stock horse; his produce being large, finely formed, with superb action.
 Also, my three-years-old youngjack, Lord Wellington,
 15 hands and 1 inch high, good bone and length, will stand at Ten Dollars to insure a living colt.
 Money due in both cases when the colts come or mare parted with—a lien retained on the colts until season money is paid.

JAMES GARRET DAVIS & DAVIS, MERCHANT TAILORS,

Main St., Paris, Ky., Opp. Court House.

Gentlemen, our stock of Suitings is new and complete in every respect; our cutter, a recent graduate in the leading college of art on Broadway, New York, and such magic skill he has displayed since our advent in business, that each of the many suits yet turned out has been a perfect fit—no exception.
 We respectfully refer you to our patrons, goods and prices.

WIND IS SIMPLY WIND, BUT FACTS ARE FACTS, AND FIGURES WON'T LIE.

THE ATTRACTIONS THIS SEASON AT THE FAMOUS

Gold Front Clothing Store

Are simply without a parallel in the annals of American history. We are playing day and night to crowded houses. Performance each and every evening (Sunday excepted) and positively no postponement. Two matinees each day, morning and afternoon. New and handsome scenery secured at a cost of $30,000 especially for the season of 1883.
 The grand soul-stirring eye-delighting drama of "DEATHLY LOW FIGURES" or "the secret of those Exquisitely Handsome styles" will be continued as long as this grand rush continues to witness them.
 Come early and secure good attention and avoid the daily rush. Remember the curtain rises at 8 a.m., and drops at 10 p.m. By order of the management.
